THE LADIES SOCIAL UNION

The Ladies Social Union of the Presbyterian church gave a social Friday evening at the church, which drew a large crowd, owing to its being served in cafeteria style.

By eight-thirty the church was filled with an appreciative audience.

Rev. S. V. Fait, pastor, opened the program with prayer. The first number on the program was, "God Remembers When the World Forgets", sang very sweetly by Miss Beas Graves, accompanied by Miss Geneva Ballinger. Then came little Miss Julia Fulkerson with a very funny spook story, which pleased the audience. Maurice DeFord told a story about George Washington, in which he did well. And so the program went, with the favorites of the evening being Masters Audrey Popejoy and Bryce Ballinger as violinist and pianist. So well did they play, that they were forced to respond to an encore. Miss Virginia Kerley pleased everybody with "Godard's Second Mazurka, a piano solo of merit. The popular male quartette in college songs, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Exendine, Mr. Floyd Arbuckle and Mr. Chambers Prichatt, with violin, clarinet and cornet numbers accompanied by Mrs. Hilton, closed the program, after which Mr. Fred Pfaff announced that the "pie counter" was ready for patronage. A jolly bustling crowd lined up and orders flew for chicken pie so rapidly, that for a time, it looked as though the eight ladies who formed the social committee would be made to handle them. Everything was satisfactory, however, and at 10:30 the last hungry patron felt satisfied.

There remains one more committee of the Social Union to serve during February, the church year closing and the year's committees being re-appointed for another year.

The Cafeteria, under a plan of serving their viands at five cents each, though they served chicken pie and pickles for five cents, also bread and butter sandwiches and deviled eggs for five cents, took in nearly $20.00, thereby showing that they served nearly four hundred dishes during the evening.

FOSTER FOR SHERIFF

In this issue we announce Ed Foster of Ft. Cobb for sheriff of Caddo County, subject to the Democratic primary.

Mr. Foster was born in Ohio where he spent his boyhood days, later he went to Kansas and from that state to Oklahoma where he has been a resident ever since. He entered the race for this office two years ago but at two late a date to gain much strength at the polls. However he made a splendid showing.

Mr. Foster, is a quiet, industrious farmer, owning a good farm near Ft. Cobb. He is well qualified to fill the office, should he be nominated and elected, and the Democrat has no hesitancy in recommending him to the Democratic voters. Give this man consideration.

Mrs. S. E. Jones and daughter of Ft. Cobb, visited Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lemon, Saturday.

Two Song Birds at Wigwam

The first appearance of Miss Helen Renstrom in our city last night, at the Wigwam, was greeted with an immense audience who went out to hear the wonderful "Oklahoma product," and they were not disappointed. Miss Renstrom was all that has been said of her and the audience was simply rapturous over her singing. It is seldom that one hears the class of singing that Miss Helen gave us last night and the encores were hearty and earnest. Her control over her voice is something fascinating, and clear as a bell, either scarcely perceptible or wonderful in volume, she thrills one as only great and pure talent can thrill and one hangs on to the last faint echo as if enthralled. To the lovers of vocal music we can heartily commend this wonderful young lady, or rather, "girl" as she is yet only such and her meteoric career has been the amazement of the musical circles throughout the United States. Born and reared in Oklahoma, every Oklahoman feels a thrill of pleasure and a genuine delight in her success and looks forward to the day when her name will be emblazoned on the escutcheon of famous singers of the world, and we certainly take it as an exceptional opportunity for all Oklahomans to hear and learn to love her as our own. Miss Renstrom is accompanied by Miss Hazel Spenger of St. Louis, who is also a very noted musician and adds very much to the pleasantness of the evening by her wonderful piano playing. She is also a very talented singer and the two girls compose one of the most pleasant and profitable evening's entertainment that one could wish for. They will be at the Nusho Wednesday night only.
